SECRETARIAT LIBRARY NOTIFICATION

Solan, the 5th January, 1972

No. Adm-II-10 71. The Governor, Himachal Pradesh, has pleased to make the following rules for the Secretariat of Himachal Pradesh Secretariat Library. The rules will come into force from the 1st January, 1972.

I. Purpose. Himachal Pradesh Secretariat Library shall be a Reference library and to cater to the needs of the staff of the Himachal Pradesh Secretariat and of the subordinate offices located at Simla of the Government.

II. Working Hours: (i) The library will remain open from 10.00 a.m. to 5.00 p.m. on all working days. General books will be issued to the members from 10.00 a.m. to 4.30 p.m. No general book will be issued or received back in the library on Wednesday. Law and reference books required for official use will be issued as and when required.

(ii) The reading room of the library will remain open from 10.00 a.m. to 5.00 p.m. on all working days. The timing may be changed in special circumstances with the approval of the Chief Secretary. Changed in timings, if any, will be displayed on the notice board outside the Library.

III. Membership. (i) All employees of the Himachal Pradesh Government Secretariat and of the attached and subordinate offices of Himachal Pradesh Government residing in Simla are eligible for membership of the Library. Application on the prescribed forms obtainable from the Library are required to be endorsed by the Head of Office concerned.

(ii) Any other person, who does not fulfil the condition prescribed in Clause I, above, may also be enrolled as a member with the prior approval of the library committee.

IV. Issue of Books: (i) Reference books required for official use will be issued only on receipt of a requisition on the prescribed form (obtainable from the library). The requisition form shall be signed by an officer not below the rank of a Section Officer. The official signing the requisition shall remain personally responsible for its return to the library.

(ii) Each member of the library shall receive a membership card to enable him to avail of the book loaning facilities of the library.

(iii) Membership card and books are not transferable.

(iv) There are two categories of membership. Category 'A' is of Gazetted Officers. They are entitled to draw three books at a time. Category 'B' consists of official other than Gazetted Officers. They can borrow two books at a time.

(v) Books will not be issued by proxy.

(vi) Books will not be issued until all the overdue books are received back in the library.

(vii) No person shall take a book or a journal or any other article out of the library without the prior permission of the librarian.

(viii) All persons while leaving the library must submit their books and other belongings with them to an inspector, if required by the janitor at the gate.

(ix) Any change in the Office or Home address of the member must be intimated to the librarian immediately.

(x) The Chairman of the Library Committee may, as a special case, allow any person to consult the books in the library or borrow any publications which is normally available for issue.

(xi) The following books will not be issued out of the library.

- (i) Rare and out of print books;
- (ii) Albums;
- (iii) Encyclopaedias and Dictionaries;
- (iv) Paintings or
- (v) Periodicals.

(xii) A person may refer to any number of books in the library room. These should be returned to the librarian and not placed back on the shelves.

(xiii) Period of loan of a book or publication shall be 21 days from the date of issue. If the due date falls on a Sunday or a holiday, the book may be returned on the next working day.

(xiv) Books or publications may be recalled before the due date of return without assigning any reasons.

(xv) The period for which a book is loaned may be renewed at the discretion of the librarian provided:

- (a) The request for renewal is made on or before the due date; and
- (b) No other member has requested for the book in the mean time.

(xvi) Reminders for overdue books are usually being sent. However, non-receipt of a reminder can not be entertained as an excuse for delay.

(xvii) A fine of five paise per day per volume shall be charged in case books are retained longer than the period prescribed. The fine will be collected from the date on which a book should have been returned. The librarian shall be authorised to collect the fine on issue of a receipt.

(xviii) All publications issued to any person shall be returned to the library before he proceeds on a long tour or on leave unless prior permission of the Library Committee has been obtained.

(xix) Books will be issued according to the priority of requisitions.

(xx) Certain books which are mainly of use to a particular department may, on a written request to the Library Committee, be issued to the Head of Department for a period of one month.

V. Loss of membership card:—The loss of a membership card must be reported in writing to the librarian immediately. The member will be responsible for books already issued to him against his card. A duplicate card will be issued after two weeks at a fee of Re. 1 per card.

VI. Damage and loss of book:—(i) Members and readers shall not write upon or damage or mark any book, periodicals, map or album. If a book is damaged the cost of the book shall have to be paid at the prevailing market price.

(ii) Books not returned on the due date and reported to have been lost shall be paid for at the prevailing market price plus 20 % collection charges, immediately on the expiry of the prescribed period and, if paid for after the expiry of the prescribed period with the payment of the normal fine. If one volume of a set is damaged or lost, and the particular volume is not singly available in the market, the whole set shall have to be replaced. The amount will in no case be refundable.

(iii) Books must not be dog-eared nor any marginalia of marks made therein.

VII. General:—(i) Every member shall obtain a clearance certificate from the librarian before he is relieved of his post.

(ii) Smoking in the stacks and the reading room is strictly prohibited.

(iii) Perfect silence is requested in the Reading Room and the stacks.

(iv) The library is an open access library and has maintained a Dictionary Catalogue. However, in certain circumstances, some sections of the library may be declared as closed stacks. The Assistant Librarian at the information desk may be consulted to obtain any book shelved in the sections.

VIII. Stock taking:—The library will remain closed for issue of general books from 1st April to 30th April every year, for stock taking.

The Himachal Pradesh Secretariat Library Rules shall supersede all previous rules made on the subject.

K. N. CHANNA,
Chief Secretary.
